Summer 2024

Short Answer Responses

What do you hope to gain from participating in a short-term study abroad and why are you interested in this particular trip?

While studying abroad is an exciting opportunity, new experiences in new places can be stressful. How might you deal with stress on the trip related to factors like being tired, being away from home, and being in an unfamiliar place?

Education, Psychology, and Social Work in the UK: A Short-Term Study Abroad

Summer 2024

Engaging in meaningful interactions with faculty, students, and community members is an essential part of a short-term study abroad. How might you deal with interacting with people whom you do not know well and/or might not find easy to befriend?
